(Units in parentheses are excluded from the total unit count due to waivers, overlays and other factors. See Footnotes below for reasons for exclusion)

† OLD MAJOR/MINOR (declared Spring 2013 or earlier): Lower division prerequisites waived for students with prior language experience (e.g., high school courses, AP credit, heritage language experience). These prerequisites were excluded from the unit count for the major and the minor in the previous bulletin copy.

‡ Flagship track waivers: Lower and intermediate level language courses may be waived, upon advisement, for students entering the Flagship Program with a higher level of Chinese language proficiency.

* GWAR WRITING REQUIREMENT: University GWAR requirement to be satisfied by taking one GWAR offering from the Chinese Program or Department of Foreign Languages. Current GWAR offerings include CHIN 601GW, CHIN 611GW, and CHIN 612 (overlay with core requirement) and FLL 400 (overlay with upper division elective). GWAR courses completed as part of another major also satisfies this requirement.

 Culminating Experience: Prior to submitting an application for graduation, candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Chinese must present evidence of having completed a Culminating Experience Project.

The Culminating Experience Project can be completed through one of three options:

- (1) STANDARDIZED TEST: The student shall submit evidence of having passed (1) the Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi (HSK) at Level 4 or higher; (2) the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL) at Level 3 or higher; or (3) the ACTFL/ILR Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) at advanced low or higher
- (2) WRITING PORTFOLIO: The student shall submit a writing portfolio with evidence of advanced level academic and/or professional writing in both Chinese and English. The portfolio must contain at least one work of Chinese language academic or professional writing developed out of a writing assignment submitted for credit in an upper division course taught in Chinese, and one work of English language academic or professional writing developed out of a writing assignment accepted for credit in a GWAR course.
- (3) FLAGSHIP CAPSTONE: The Flagship Capstone option is available only to students accepted into the Chinese Flagship Program. Students in the Chinese Flagship Program must choose the Flagship Capstone Option, which consists of a "Capstone Year" abroad, to be implemented once the student has reached proficiency benchmarks set by the Language Flagship and has been recommended by the Council of Chinese Flagship Directors.

 COMPLEMENTARY STUDIES: Required of all candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Chinese are 12 units of Complementary Studies, which must come from courses bearing a prefix other than CHIN.

Complementary Studies for the Chinese major can be satisfied via four possible routes:

- (1) FOREIGN LANGUAGE: 12 units in any foreign language other than Chinese (may include up to 3 units of FL prefix courses);
- (2) STUDY ABROAD: 12 units of course work taken in an approved study abroad program (including CSU Study Abroad, SFSU Bilateral, Chinese Flagship, and SLI Translation-Interpretation programs);
- (3) 2ND MAJOR / MINOR / CERTIFICATE: 12 units of course work taken as part of a second major, a minor or a certificate;
- (4) RELATED SUBJECTS: 12 units of course work in related disciplines with the approval of a Chinese Program advisor. Related disciplines typically include linguistics, literature, philosophy, history, education, and any aspect of greater China, East Asia, or Asian Americans. (continued on next page)

Where a course with a non-CHIN prefix is taken as a core requirement or elective for the Chinese major, the said course may also (doubly) count towards Complementary Studies only via the Study Abroad option or the 2nd Major/Minor/Certificate option listed above. Students satisfying Complementary Studies through the Foreign Language option are allowed a maximum of 3 units of overlap of FL-prefix courses between Chinese major and Complementary Studies units. Students satisfying Complementary Studies through the Related Subjects option are not allowed to double-count major and Complementary Studies units.

Additional M.A. requirements:

1	ADVISING	Student must seek mandatory advising with the Chinese Program graduate advisor regarding course selection and progress towards degree
2	ATC/GAP	An Advancement to Candidacy (ATC) form [formerly known as a GAP form] must be filed by the student before he/she can apply for graduation. The form can only be filed after having completed the first semester (9 semester units), but must be filed prior to the semester of graduation. The Chinese Program ATC form can be downloaded from: http://www.sfsu.edu/~gradstdy/forms/chnse.pdf
3	CULMINATING EXPERIENCE	In addition to required coursework, students must enroll in CHIN 896EXM and complete the Culminating Experience, a.k.a. Master's Comprehensive Written and Oral Examinations in two subfields (student must set topic and reading list with two Chinese Program faculty prior to third week of semester taking exams). The student is admitted to the oral examination upon passing the written examination. Both examinations may be attempted not more than two times. Enroll in CHIN 896 EXM for 0 unit culminating experience class.
4	APPLICATION FOR GRADUATION	Student must apply for graduation online in final semester of study
5	CONTINUOUS ENROLLMENT	Student must maintain continuous enrollment. That is to say, they cannot drop out of school (take no classes) for more than one semester. If students take no classes for two semesters or more, they will lose their student status and cease to be Chinese M.A. Program students, at which point they must reapply to get back into the program – readmission and transfer of course units is not guaranteed.
